

BEE PRETTY CORK CITY

In support of the

All-Ireland Pollinator Plan

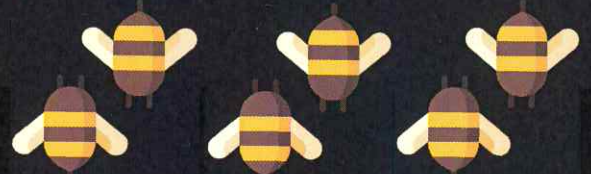

2015-2020

Cork City Council is running a

Pollinator themed Primary Schools Art Competition

The aim of this competition is to raise awareness of the importance of pollinators to the natural heritage of the city, particularly amongst local communities and schools

There are two categories for this Art Competition and all you have to do to enter is :

1. Junior Cycle – Junior Infants to 1st Class –
Colour in the attached 'Bee Pretty Cork City' colouring template
2. Senior Cycle – 2nd Class to 6th Class –
Create your own art work based on the theme:
'BEE PRETTY CORK CITY'

The winners in each category of the Pollinator Primary School Arts competition will receive:

- A family ticket to the Everyman Palace Theatre Pantomime "Jack and the Beanstalk" on January 2nd 2020
- A training session with Wild Work on how to make the school more pollinator friendly, ID guides for bees and butterflies and a selection of native wildflower seeds

The winning student and their school will be presented their prize by the Lord Mayor

Closing date for entries Monday 9th December 2019

Entries to be posted to: Niamh Twomey, Heritage Officer, Cork City Council, City Hall, Cork

Terms and Conditions:

- Contact details for entrants to this competition will only be used for the purpose of this competition
 - Cork City Council is not in a position to return any of the entries
 - Entries may be used by Cork City Council for the purpose of promoting biodiversity and the importance of pollinators in Cork
- This project is funded by the National Biodiversity Action Plan and Cork City Council and is an action of the Cork City Heritage Plan

